IT HAS BEEN A PLEASURE AND A PRIVILEGE TO PREPARE THIS SOUTHWESTER FOR YOU, AND WE HOPE THAT IN SOME MEASURE THE BOOK WILL BE WHAT YOU WOULD HAVE IT BE. IT IS WITH SOMEWHAT A FEELING OF TREPIDATION THAT WE RELEASE IT FOR YOUR CRITICISM, BUT IF IN AFTER TIMES IT WILL BRING BACK AN HOUR HERE AND THERE OF YOUR MANY HAPPY DAYS AT SOUTHWESTERN, WE SHALL FEEL AMPLY REPAYED FOR OUR WORK.

He is a middle-aged man with a shaved head, wearing round-rimmed glasses, a dark suit jacket, a light-colored collared shirt, and a dark tie. He has a serious expression. ## SOUTHWESTERN SONG

Again we hail thee, mother dear,
Hail to thee, Southwestern,
Thy sons are loyal, never fear,
Loyal to Southwestern,
We'll ne'er forget thy fost'reng care,
The quiet hour of morning prayer—
The ringing call to service there
Back in old Southwestern.

Our fondest memories will cling,
Cling to thee, Southwestern.
And all the service we can bring
Shall be thine, Southwestern.
The days of toil we welcome here;
We love the spot with all its cheer,—
The songs to every student dear,—
Dear to old Southwestern.

Come, let us on to victory
For our dear Southwestern.
For Texas still has need of thee,
Needs her own Southwestern.
And may thy sun forever shine,
As students gather at thy shrine,
For life and death we all are thine,
Always thine, Southwestern.

PIRATE FIGHT HYMN

Pirates fight for old Southwestern,
For your Alma Mater dear.

Pirates fight for old Southwestern,
For victory is near.

To Southwestern we'll be loyal,
Till the sun drops from the sky,
Remembering until the end,
Pirate's fight never dies.

FOOTBALL

Night games on Snyder field are never-to-be-forgotten parts of life at Southwestern. How cold
it was, and how we yelled! The season may not have been much as seasons go, but they are still our pirates, and all we ask is a chance to cheer for them.

LEFTY EDENS, Coach

Charles M. "Lefty" Edens, athletic director of Southwestern University, has been in that position ten seasons. He has, in the length of that time, won championships in the four major sports, football, basket ball, track, and baseball.

He has seen his football teams smash Baylor and Rice, and his baseball teams take the measure of every major college club in this state. Back in the war days he played on Southwestern teams that whipped S. M. U. and other great aggregations.

Under his able tutorship Southwestern teams have always been a credit to the school. Other teams respect the

Pirates because they always play a hard brand of football. Southwestern athletes admire and respect their coach, and so long as they can keep going, they don't let him down.

VANCE SEAMANS, Assistant Coach

Vance Seamans, a former Southwestern football and basketball star, is back at his Alma Mater for the purpose of assisting Coach Edens in the training of Pirate football and basketball players. Vance was an outstanding Quarterback on the football team and an exceptional Forward on the basketball team in his undergraduate days.

REVIEW OF THE SEASON

By Don Scarborough

One arch enemy, Saint Edward's Bengal Tigers, the Pirates defeated in their 1935 football season. Another conference foe, the Hillbillies of Daniel Baker, they tied. With these two exceptions the Pirates were defeated in every game.

It wasn't that Southwestern put a weaker starting team on the field; it was simply that their substitutes could not cope with the fresh string of players the opposition continued to send in during the final vital quarter of each game.

The first half of all the conference games gave the Pirate fans something to base their hopes for victory on. It was the final half that usually told the same sad story.

Coach Edens opened his training camp early in September. In the squad that reported were seven lettermen, five junior college transfers, seven squadmen from last year's team, and a mob of eager, hustling sophomores. The lettermen were headed by Captain Joe Barnes, a sturdy, fire-eating fullback, while the other stripe-bearers were I. D. Hoke, tackle; Max Busshart, tackle; Dusty Simmons, guard; Don

JOE BARNES, Fullback, Captain and Three Varsity Letter

It is unfortunate that this great athlete, Captain Joe Barnes, did not have a chance to play on a powerful, well-balanced Pirate club.

Barnes was a natural football player. The writer remembers when he weighed 130 pounds and played for Belton High School. He was a football man then, just as he was all through his college career.

His game lacked nothing. He was rated as one of the state's best line-backers. Although he never weighed over 170 pounds, he was a fine blocker, a good passer, and kicker, and, last but not least, he could carry that nugget!

At the close of the season he was voted the outstanding player in the Conference. We rate him side-by-side with Robert Jancik, that great running Pirate back of 1927, the man who beat Baylor.

Barnes will coach, and we are staking our chips on him. If he meets the obstacles of life as he did the opposition on a football field our bet will be a safe one.

Junior college transfers at Southwestern have always been something of a rarity, and it was with considerable interest that the fans watched Ray Couser, Jim Turner, Clayton Taylor, and Roth Parker, John Tarleton transfers, and Freeman Mays, Victoria Junior College transfer, go through their paces in the first weeks of the season.

These men proved to be great assets to the team as the season wore on.

Sophomores were Blum, Hill, Gammenthaler, Tyner, Rader, Lewis, Orr, Mann, Boyd, and Benold. Squadmen were Swope, Byrd, McDaniels, Pryor, Weaver, Presley, and Wardlaw.

The Pirates opened their schedule with the Baylor Bears in Waco and were badly beaten. Crippled, they made a long, tiresome trip into Arkansas, where they met and lost to the College of the Ozarks. Their next game was with Denton Teachers, who, spurred by the brilliant running of their phantom backfield ace, Johnny Stovall, ran the Pirates ragged and won handily.

Start of the Turkey Day classic with Howard Payne.

Badly beaten in their first three starts, the Pirates came home to enter into their conference schedule. Saint Edward's furnished their first opposition, and the game was on Snyder field. A bon fire roared the night before the game, and a giant rally was staged. President John Bergin was a prominent figure in the rally and so endeared himself to the players that they dedicated the game to him.

It took the Pirates nearly three quarters to get started against the Tigers. The Austin team had scored two touchdowns and seemed to have the situation well in hand when the Pirates started clicking. A brilliant run by Turner, a bullet pass from Couser to Mays, and a stout-hearted plunge by Cap-

Iain Barnes earned the first touchdown and in a minute the Pirates were well on their way to the winning marker. The score was made possible when Erikson broke through the Tiger defense and blocked a kick, deep in their territory. Barnes again scored and then won the game with an extra point from placement.

The rest of the season can quickly be told. A luck pass on a muddy field gave A. C. C. a 7 to 0 victory over the Buccaneers and that game saw Mays

This, fellow students, is presented by the courtesy of our well-beloved instructor and friend, Dr. R. W. The school rode a special train to Waxahachie for the Trinity game. The rain fell in torrents all day long, and it was bitterly cold. The Pirates rode high in the first part of the game but folded up in the last half. The final score was 13 to 0.

our boys felt good and played better. They more than matched the invaders in power and should have won the game. The score was 13 to 12. Southwestern scored on line plays in the first half, with Barnes making the score, and on a pass, Couser to Swope, in the last half. Both of the Indian scores were made on long passes from Pool, their quarterback, to Anthony, their giant fullback.

The next week, in Brownwood, the Pirates showed power where they had failed to show it the week before. Couser kicked two field goals to give his team a 6 to 6 tie with the favored Hillbillies. The home team made their score in the last minute on a pass.

Our team made its bid for lasting honors on Thanksgiving. Southwestern hadn't beaten Howard Payne since the Owls were so bad, back in the year one. It looked as though this team would do the trick. For a whole half the Pirates battled the hard-hitting Yellowjackets all over Snyder field and claimed a 7 to 0 lead at the rest period. Several of our players, however, were forced out of the game with injuries in the third quarter, and the Pirates saw their hopes go.

BASKET BALL SEASON

A small squad reported when Coach Edens issued the call for basket ball players. A survey revealed that of the number reporting, there were only six men with the ability to play Texas conference brand of football.

Six men can't win basket ball games in this conference as it was proved as the season progressed. The Pirates were usually in the lead at the half periods, but on all but two occasions, the opposition rallied to take the game in its dying moments.

BASKET BALL SEASON

We defeated St. Edwards of Austin and Westmoreland of San Antonio.

George Endicott, lanky pivot man, was the scoring sensation of the conference and was named on the all-conference mythical team when the season had reached its end. Joe Barnes was given honorable mention.

Other lettermen were Dillard Swope, Roy Tyner, Walton Simmons, and Freeman Mays.

All the more important sports are featured at Southwestern. Tennis, volleyball, softball, boxing and golf scenes are shown in the photos. The golf team coached by Dr. Howard has been very successful during the last few years, and Francis Butler, captain of the '36 team, is expected to carry off top honors in the Texas Conference Meet. The Southwestern team won the meet in 1934 and scored again last year by winning first place in team play. Besides the softball tournaments held by the girls, there is the annual softball race between the classes. At the time of this writing, the Sophs are in the lead by a large margin, with the Juniors and Seniors coming next.

Instructor Don Scarborough gives two of his associates pointers on the game.

Each year the old members of the Southwestern University S Association add to the organization those boys winning letters for the first time. This year twelve members were initiated; Football, Tennis, Basketball, and Golf were represented as well as the Pep Squad's two leaders.

Members:

Lynn Ross, Walton Simmons, Reese Jennings, George Endicott, Cowley Smith, Joe Moore, Francis Butler, Leonard Ferguson, James White, I. D. Hoke, Hershel Orr, James Mann, Owen Erikson, Almo Halamicek, Ray Couser, Max Busshart, Donald Bishop, Folk Weaver, Dillard Swope, Roy Tyner, Joe Barnes, Kermit Horn, Norman Presley, Vance Seamans, Virgil Morelle.

THE PIRATE PAGEANT

It is only fitting that we say a word about the Pirate Pageant. This gala affair was the idea of one of our graduating Seniors, Mr. Cowley Smith. We are sincerely sorry that it was necessary for the Sou-Wester to go to press before we could get pictures of the gigantic parade and the impressive crowning ceremony, but here we pay tribute to the high school Seniors of Texas who came to Southwestern at this occasion.

Representatives began arriving after lunch Saturday, April the eighteenth, and spent the afternoon registering. After the banquet at the dining hall in the Women's Building, the crowd repaired to the athletic field where Governor James V. Allred crowned Virginia Forwood of Taylor Queen of the Pirate Fleet and Kenneth Germond of Waco Captain to reign with her. Miss Southwestern, Nell Shivers, and her escort, Leonard Ferguson, occupied thrones with the newly crowned potentates.

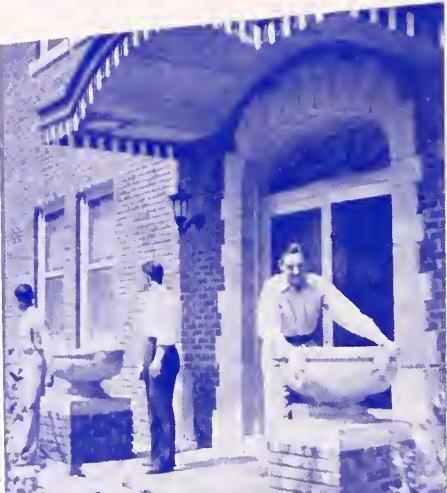

Again let us congratulate Mr. Cowley Smith and the Senior Class on the idea of the Pirate Pageant, may it live to become one of Southwestern's grandest traditions.
